Craft	Number Activities	Understanding the World	Useful info/website links Other ideas to keep you busy
Look outside in your garden or in your nearest park, what can you see? Choose an interesting leaf or flower or stick and draw it. Can you copy the shapes you can see, can you make light and dark lines with your pencil? Choose a picture you like from a book and copy it. Draw it first with a pencil then colour in it with paints or colour pencils. Make a pair of binoculars from card tubes to help you look for things when you are outside.	Watch Numberblock Series 1 The Whole of Me and Holes Explore how many ways you can put 5 items into 2 pots.(You could use stones, pasta shapes, beans, buttons whatever you have to hand) Reinforce that you still have 5 even though it looks different. The adult could then model how this could be written as a number sentence if you feel the child is ready making sure you talk what you are doing, eg "3 stones in this pot and 2 stones in that pot but 5 altogether so 3 and 2 makes 5" $3+2=5$ repeat this to make different sums.	Talk to your child about where you live, help them to learn their address. Draw your house and label with your address. Find Street on a map. Look for places you know. Where do you like to go in Street? Do you visit any other places? Are they near your home or further away? Go for a walk and take photos of what you see. Make a simple map of your walk by drawing a line from start to finish and drawing some of the things you saw on the way. Draw a picture of some of your favourite places and label them.	Practise putting your coat on, doing up the buttons and pulling the zip up and down. Practise putting on your gloves and scarf. Can you fill up your water bottle by yourself? Can you tidy your bed? Don't forget to check Purple Mash, you might have some activities set by your teacher to do. Also check YouTube for Cosmic Kids yoga and Joe Wicks has some activities for Early Years. BBC School Radio has stories and programmes that will help
