Friday 4th April 2014

Dear Parents

We have come to the end of another term and I know all the children are ready for a rest. There have been a lot of bugs going around which have been difficult to shift and left both adults and children very tired and run down. Hopefully the holiday will do everyone good.

Year 2 enjoyed their trip to Farleigh Hungerford Castle this week and they were complimented on their knowledge of castles and also their behaviour both on the coach and during the visit. All the teachers are now busy planning for next term where the theme will be 'Special People'.

It was good to see so many parents attend our recent parent evenings and find out what the children had been learning and see the progress they have made since the last meeting. Research shows how important these formative years are in a child's education and how important the link between home and school is. We hope you will listen to your child read over the holidays, even the more able readers like to be listened to and a visit to the library is free.

We return to school on Tuesday April 22nd but in the meantime have a very Happy Easter

Head teacher
